

About SeeAbility:

SeeAbility is a registered national charity (formerly the Royal School for the Blind) established in 1799 which works with young people and adults who are visually-impaired with additional disabilities.

SeeAbility offers a range of support services including residential and supported living services; day services; rehabilitation services; and community development projects.

SeeAbility launched the eye 2 eye Campaign to improve eye care and vision for people with learning disabilities – the launch of Look Up is a result of this Campaign. www.seeability.org
